note. On October 18, we conveyed Commerce Secretary Gutierrez's Ref B letter to Foreign Minister K.D. Knight, also via diplomatic note.

12. On October 19, Polcouns conveyed Ref C points in their entirety by telephone to Amb. Vilma McNeish, Multilateral Affairs Office Director, Ministry of Foreign Affairs and Foreign Trade (MFAFT). (Immediately following their conversation, he faxed her a copy of the talking points.) McNeish replied that the GOJ understands USG reservations about the UNESCO Convention, but emphasized that "We believe the draft is a fairly good text." Then, in what she said was a personal observation, McNeish described as "not valid in this context" USG concerns about the Convention's potential for being used to restrict trade and the free flow of ideas.
